

Portfolio classes

for future illustrators and designers

Lessons offered by Author/Illustrator Maria Carluccio.

Portfolio development instruction for college bound students or adult students seeking to enter the commercial art field.

Contact for schedule and prices.

Email: mariacarluccio@verizon.net or phone: 914.2431.5012

Visit mariacarluccio.com for more information. See "classes".

Lessons take place in Maria's studio in Dobbs Ferry, NY.

Maria Carluccio has over 20 years of experience in the commercial art field. She is a published children's book author/illustrator and has served as the Creative Director and co-founder of Wall Stories, wall sticker mural sets. Maria has received multiple awards for her work from the NY Society of Illustrators and 3x3 magazine. She has also worked for Hallmark Cards Inc. and has taught illustration and drawing at the Academy of Art University in San Francisco. Her work has been licensed to such companies as a Pottery Barn Kids, Target and Papyrus. Maria has mentored students of all ages through out her career.

"I work with students of all levels to develop their portfolios and personal projects. We work together on projects geared specifically for each individual's goals and interests. My aim is to help students develop many of the essential skills needed for entry-level design and illustration careers. I also try to encourage self expression and personal directives, all of which assist artists to find the right market for their work".